

PERSONAL LIFE

Didier Drogba is from the Ivory Coast and he was born in 1978 in Abidjan. At the age of five he was sent to France to live with his uncle, a professional football player. He went back to Abidjan for three years and he played football in car parks. When he returned to France, he started playing football in a team for young people.

CAREER

He started his career in different French football clubs and in 2004 he got 24 million pounds to move to Chelsea FC.

ACHIEVEMENTS

He scored and won the UEFA Champions League with Chelsea FC in 2012. He was awarded the Golden Foot prize in 2013. He is the fourth top scorer of all times.

CHARITY WORK

Didier sends money to his country, which is very poor, to build orphanages and hospitals. The most important thing he did was that he stopped the Civil War in his country.

THANK YOU