The 7 deadly sins or 7 virtues are timeless and that's why many artists have been influenced by them!

So, let's see some of their most interesting Works.

1. Michael Ayrton (1949-50) The captive seven [ Tate museum]

2. Henry Moore (1953) Mother and child [Greed]

3. Paul Gustave Dore - Anger

4. Gustave Leonard (19th century) Vanity [private collection]

5. Hieronymous Bosch - The garden of earthly delights. [ Museo del Prado in Madrid]

Paradise with Adam and Eve and many wondrous animals.

The earthly delights with numerous nude figures and tremendous fruits and birds.

Hell with depictions of fantastic punishments of the various of sinners.

6. Hieronymus Bosch (1485) The seven deadly sins and the four last thing [Death of the sinner, judgement, hell and glory]

7. Dante Alighieri (1308-1321) - La divina commedia

The divine comedy is an epic narrative poem which describes Dante's travels through hell, purgatory and heaven, but at deeper level, it represents the soul's journey towards God. It is considered the most important work of Italian literature.
