To my Mother
Happy Valentine's Day baby! I can't believe that it has a year already. It seems like yesterday I was planning on giving you flowers and waiting for you at airport before the school started. The morning has been so nice. I have been thinking of doing this in school. It is at the amazing date paper that we have everything here now. You made up the most memorable year of my life. It would have been that way if you hadn't been so many things that I am thankful for baby. me. As usual. You got me so much because it from the person you love that you try and show that that's what I love about you. I know. It's that's the day that you love me.

I love you

Do you really mean it?

Yes, and you know
everytime I say I love you, I'm really trying to say so much more than those three little words.
I'm trying to say you mean more to me than anyone else in the world.
