

MY ROLE MODEL

BY EVGENIA MANTOUVALOU

Most people have as a role model someone famous,
such as an actress, a sports star, a singer...

For me that person is my cousin John Kotileas.

John is a 26-year-old young man who has managed to turn his favourite hobby into his profession!

He has always had a special relationship with nature and sports. John started skiing and diving at the age of 10 and has never stopped since then.

He has been skiing, diving and climbing in the most amazing places all over the world.

At the age of 21, he managed to climb the Himalayas mountain and reach the Mera Peak top at the height of 6476m.

He has studied Physical Education at the University of Athens, specializing in skiing and water-skiing. He is also a graduate of Thomson Rivers University of Canada in tour adventure and tourism management.

In October 2013 John, together with his friends, created the WAYOUT ADVENTURE Company. A company that provides tourist and sporting services specialized in outdoor extreme activities.

The image shows a group of skiers on a snowy mountain slope. Overlaid on the image are several promotional elements for Wayout Adventures. In the top left, a shield-shaped logo features a mountain peak and the text 'WAY OUT ADVENTURES', 'SKI CAMPS', 'powered by: ΚΑΤΑΓΙΟΤ', and 'SKI TEACHING SPECIALIST'. Below this, a yellow box contains the text 'Map. 14-15 ΠΑΡΝΑΣΣΟΣ'. Further down, Greek text reads: 'Θα πραγματοποιηθεί εισαγωγή στις τεχνικές του ορειβατικού σκι και του splitboard'. In the bottom left corner, the 'WAY OUT ADVENTURES' logo is repeated with the tagline 'The adventure agency of Greece'. A solid teal circle is located in the bottom right corner of the image area.

Their dream is to share their love for sports and nature and to show to the locals and to the foreign visitors that Greece is a natural park for all kind of activities and a destination of incomparable beauty.

So, John is a role model to me because he is young, he is brave and one of the biggest hearts I know. He had a goal that he managed to reach at a very young age. Hope to be able to join him in one of his adventures in the future!!
