

A woman with dark hair, wearing a white, off-the-shoulder, long-sleeved dress with a corset-style bodice, is shown from the waist up. She is looking slightly to her left. Her torso and right arm are covered in a vibrant, multi-colored projection of fire and light, with shades of red, orange, yellow, and white. The background is a plain, dark grey-blue wall.

Jane Eyre

by Maria Valenstain

National Theatre 2015

- "I must have liberty. And if I cannot have liberty, then I must have change."
-Jane Eyre

Overview

- Jane Eyre is about a girl who grows up in England. Despite the difficulties that she faces everyday, such as the fact that she is an orphan, she is determined to find true happiness and freedom in her life. Jane Eyre is portrayed by Madeleine Worrall, an exceptional actress. Mr. Rochester is played by Felix Hayes. The director of the play is Sally Cookson.

- “I am no bird; and no net ensnares me; I am a free human being with an independent will.”
-Jane Eyre

- To me, Jane Eyre was the best performance I've ever seen, because I realized how much effort has to be made to achieve our goals and find true happiness. I think that it's a play that everyone should see.