

Dear Diary,

Today was my first day at school.

There were a lot of children in the classroom. I met a boy, his name is Jesse. We are neighbours, too.

During break time, all the boys had a race. I wanted to take part, but they wouldn't allow me because I am a girl. When they finally accepted ... I beat them all! But they were too scared to let me participate in the finals. Jesse said that they had to let me take part or give me the prize. At last, they decided to let me run in tomorrow's finals.

I really can't wait. I will tell you what happens tomorrow.

Good night,

Leslie