

LIONEL MESSI

MY ROLE MODEL BY YANNIS MAKAVELOS

The person I most admire is Lionel Messi, the most valuable player of FC Barcelona.

First of all, I respect him for his generosity; every year he donates money to charities helping poor children.

What's more, he's very hard working and he trains hard with his team for many hours.

The thing that I like most about him is that he's determined and ambitious. So far he's won three Golden Balls - that's a trophy for the best player of the year. His goal is to win as many matches as he can.
