

My role model is my grandma. She isn't very old and she is always polite.
My grandma is very generous and supports all the poor children and charities!
She is an inspiration to all my family, but the thing I love most about my grandma
Is that she works hard to earn some money and she is well-behaved.
What is more, she is also honest and patient.