

The Strangest Superstitions From Around The World

---

People all over the world have their own unique superstitions. Let's take a look at some of the strangest superstitions from around the world.

Spain

- People in Spain believe that Tuesday the 13th, and not Friday the 13th, is an unlucky day.

Wednesday

China

- In China, number four is thought to be unlucky. People even refuse to have a fourth floor in buildings.

Egypt

- Owls are said to be unlucky as they bring bad news for the one who happens to see or hear the bird.

Russia

- They say carrying an empty bucket or even seeing someone carrying an empty bucket is a bad omen. This probably stemmed from the fact that Tsar Alexander II was assassinated by a man with an empty bucket .

Rwanda (country in Africa)

- In Rwanda, women are taught not to eat the meat of goats because eating it will cause them to grow facial hair.

The end

