

IRISH SUPERSTITIONS

IRISH SUPERSTITIONS

- There are some pretty extravagant superstitions out there and here are some of Ireland.
- On Friday the 13th some people even take to their beds or refuse to leave the house and that is called Paraskevidekatriaphobia.

SUPERSTITIONS ON DEATH

- If you trip and fall in a graveyard, there are many chances that you will die by the end of the year.
- If you pass by a funeral while driving, you must walk with the funeral party for at least take four steps to warn off bad luck.

ANIMAL SUPERSTITIONS

- If a rooster comes to the front of your house and crows, then you can expect visitors.
- If the first lamb of the year is black, then someone in the family will die within a year.

The Record