

Hippie movement

A large crowd of people is gathered in a public square at night. In the background, there is a tall, white monument with a statue on top, surrounded by a circular base. The square is illuminated by streetlights, and the crowd is dense, filling most of the foreground and middle ground. The overall atmosphere is that of a significant public event or protest.

- Hippies was a youth movement that started in the United States and United Kingdom during the mid-1960s against the Vietnam war.
 - The hippies' slogan was "peace".
- With it a new life style started that people wanted to stop the war and be near the nature.

Woodstock festival

- The Woodstock Festival was a music festival which took place on East Coast in January 1969.
- There many rock singers gathered and they sang and played rock music for many days. A lot of young people attended and enjoyed this festival
- The Woodstock festival is referred until now because it was an important point of the modern music.
