Hippie Fashion

- The hippie movement and the hippie fashion made a big impact on the fashion world in the 1960's. It was a statement about freedom itself.

Hippie Fashion

- Hippies (derived from the word hipster) were interested in an alternative lifestyle. They rebelled against society and its rules. They were focused on freedom and getting back to nature. Their clothing was often loose and made of natural fibers like cotton.

Hippie Fashion

- Men and women grew their hair long. They avoided fussy styles and styling products. They preferred anything handmade whether sewn, knitted or woven. Gradually they dyed their own clothes and the colorful tie-dye style became popular.
