Martin Luther King

- Martin Luther King was an American Baptist minister, activist, humanitarian, and leader in the African-American Civil Rights Movement. He is best known for his role in the advancement of civil rights using nonviolent civil disobedience based on his Christian beliefs.

Early life

- King was born on January 15, 1929, in Atlanta, Georgia. When he was five, his father chose to be called Martin Luther King in honor of the German reformer Martin Luther. At a young age, he experienced his first racist experience, as in the dining rooms of the trains, curtains used to separate black and white passengers.

I have a dream

King delivered a 17-minute speech, later known as “I Have a Dream”.

- “I say to you today, my friends, so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.”
- “I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal.'”
- “I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.”
