

Dr. Martin Luther King

BY JOHN PARASCHIS

About ... King

- Martin Luther King was an American activist.
- He was born in January 1929.
- He died in April 1968.
- He was the Leader of the “African American Civil Rights Movement”.
- He is best known for his role for the protection of human rights.
- In 1964, King received the Nobel Peace Prize for his combat against racial inequality through nonviolence.
- He was assassinated in Memphis , Tennessee in 1968.
- After his death , he was honoured in many ways by the American people and recognized worldwide for his contribution to world peace and respect for people’s civil rights.

_____ * _____

“I HAVE A DREAM” speech by Martin Luther King

King’s speech in 1963, with the title “I have a Dream” has gathered hundreds of thousands of people.

It is accepted as his most important speech ever.

- Here is the video of this speech , on youtube:
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3vDWWy4CMhE>

