Info

- Martin Luther King, Jr. (January 15, 1929 – April 4, 1968) was an American Baptist minister, activist, humanitarian, and leader in the African-American Civil Rights Movement.
- He is best known for his role in the advancement of civil rights using nonviolent civil disobedience based on his Christian beliefs.

...

- King became a civil rights activist early in his career.
- He was one of the orators of American history.

- On October 14, 1964, King received the Nobel Peace Prize for combating racial inequality through nonviolence.
- In 1965, he helped to organize the Selma to Montgomery marches, and the following year he and SCLC took the movement north to Chicago to work on segregated housing.

- In the final years of his life, King expanded his focus to include poverty and speak against the Vietnam War, alienating many of his liberal allies with a 1967 speech titled "Beyond Vietnam".
