My holidays until now...

- Greetings from New York! I am here on holiday and I am planning to see as many sights as I can. I have already seen the Empire State Building and the Statue of Liberty. I have also visited the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Ellis Island! Yesterday I went to Harlem to meet a friend and then I went to Delmonico's Bar & Grill to try some of the top foods the Americans eat.

The rest of my holidays...

- For the rest of my holidays I am going to visit Central Park and Times Square. I am also going to visit the Wall Street and the MOMA (Museum Of Modern Art). For the last day I am going to watch the New York Knicks playing against the Chicago Bulls! I can't wait !

Bye!

I wish you have fun in Greece and write back soon.

See you ,

Mark
