My favourite journey

Last summer, I visited Gstaad, which is a village German-speaking section of the Canton of Bern in southwestern Switzerland, with my family and a few friends. We basically went there to watch a beach volleyball tournament, but for us, it wasn't just that. Spending time in a place like that is absolutely amazing. Most people visit it during the winter season, but it was actually quite great in August as well.

Speak to someone from another country

Every summer, I go with my family to a greek island called Aegina. We have lots of friends there, some of whom are French and German. I'm already being taught German at school, but I got to learn a few words and phrases in French as well.

Watch a film or TV show in another language

- I've watched quite a lot of movies in English, but the actors in one of my favourite films are speaking Italian. The movie is called 'Benvenuti Al Sud'.
- I also watch a lot of TV shows in English, such as Teen Wolf, The Flash etc., but also tried to watch a Spanish one called 'Velvet'.

Happy Birthday song in another language

- Buon compleanno a te,
buon compleanno a te,
buon compleanno nome,
buon compleanno a te!
- Happy Birthday to you,
happy Birthday to you,
happy Birthday name,
happy birthday to you!
