

Leeds

by Sandy Theodoropoulou

Some information about the city

- Leeds is a city in West Yorkshire of England. In 2011, it was the third-largest city in the United Kingdom.
- Today, Leeds is considered to be the cultural, financial and commercial heart of the West Yorkshire Urban Area. Leeds is served by four universities, and has the fourth largest student population in the country and has the country's fourth largest urban economy.

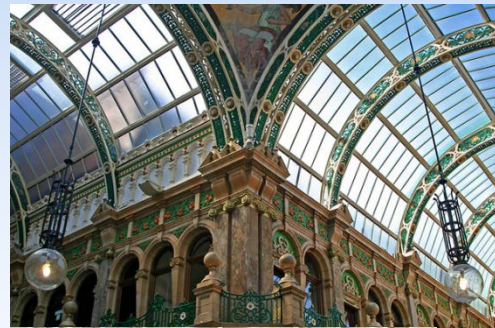

- After London ,of course, Leeds is the largest legal centre in UK!
- The city plays an important role as far as regional economic development is concerned! Over 30 national and international banks are located in the city!

Sightseeing...

- Civic Quarter
- Headrow and Briggate
- St John the Evangelist's Church
- Leeds Corn Exchange

Civic Quarter

- The Civic Quarter is famous for its statues, including figures of the Black Prince and inventor James Watt.
- Near there is Joseph Priestley Church, as well as the spectacular Town Hall that queen Victoria made.

Headrow and Briggate

- The Briggate area is famous for its historic shopping arcades, many of them of architectural significance. Those to explore include Grand Arcade, and there is a number of small boutique shops.

St John the Evangelist's Church

- The finest of the Leed's churches is St John's in New Briggate, built in 1634. St John's is the oldest church in the city centre of Leeds, being built at a time when few churches were being built. The man that paid for the church was John Harrison.

Leeds Corn Exchange

- One of only three such structures surviving in the UK !Leeds Corn Exchange is considered one of England's finest Victorian buildings. Designed by Cuthbert Brodrick and finished in 1864, the building is now home to a variety of shops, galleries and cafés.

Pictures ...

- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=G5JLuYdhFrk>
- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EAetV6Y_Rcg

A hand in a white glove holds a black clapperboard with a white and black striped top edge. The clapperboard features the text "THE END" in a bold, sans-serif font. "THE" is in white and "END" is in red. The background is a bright yellow wall.

THE END