

My dream destination 😊

My dream destination is London. I like London because it's an amazing place.

First of all, I'd like to see Big Ben, and then go to a pub. I have heard it's very nice to go either in the morning or at night.

Secondly, London is the place for tea. I like tea and I would like to drink English tea. 😊

Finally, I'd like to visit a museum but I don't know which one.
