

My Dream Destination

My dream destination is NYC. I've seen lots of television documentaries about this place and it looks an amazing state. I tell you the reasons why I want to visit NYC.

Firstly, I would like to see the most important sights like the Empire State Building, the Statue of Liberty and Central Park. I would also like to try the famous NY hotdogs at the Yankee Stadium. I would definitely go to the theater on Broadway and visit Chinatown and Little Italy as well.

Secondly, I want to see how the people live peacefully while they come from different countries.

Thirdly, I want to meet my cousins, my uncle and my aunt who live in Astoria.

Finally, I would see an NBA game because that is the best basketball in the world.
