

Strange Festivals

Artemis Drossou

Aproz Village Festival

In Switzerland every year on 31st December a big festival takes place with fun events and some big surprises. Here are a few of the fantastic activities you can enjoy.

Cow fights

The festival cow fights take place at 11 o'clock. Cows fight and the winning "queen" becomes leader of the championship and its owner wins 200kg of grass. Injuries are very rare. You must see it because it is fantastic.

Cow fights

Race with potato sacks

This funny event takes place at 12:30 and a lot of people run. You wear a potato sack and you have to run for 20 meters. Many of you will fall down but the winner will win a sack full of potatoes. Don't forget your trainers and your energy.

Swimming in a frozen lake

If you are cold, this is not for you. The meeting is at 2:00 o'clock at the lake. Come and join us. Some very daring people swim in the frozen lake and the one that stays more time in the water wins a very warm coat. Good luck to everyone.

WE ARE WAITING FOR ALL OF YOU

The End