

... and refuse the ones
controlled me,
can't get to me at all...

I have chosen these lyrics because I feel that no one should be under someone else's control, if he doesn't want to.

Every person must be free to express his opinion and follow the choices he makes in life. He has to find the power to refuse, to say no to those who want to control him. Otherwise, it will be like he can't live his own life.
