

At recess, the boys and the girls eat snacks and play together. We all play hide and seek or sometimes we play football or basketball. The girls sometimes walk around and talk or they go to the library.

When the weather is bad, most of the times the boys watch videos on the class computer or they play board games but some other times they fight outside the classroom. The girls also play board games but they prefer to talk outside with girls from other classes.

PANAGIOTIS HAMODRAKAS
ST 2