

I would not really like to be like Peter Pan who never grows up. I'd prefer to grow up and live my life, enjoying every part of it while getting older. I'd like to travel around the world, work in my business and have a big family. After all, I wouldn't be able to do that if I never grew up.

George Pelekis