

RHINOCEROS

- The rhino's name comes from the Greek word "rhinokeros", which means "nose horn"!

- Rhinos live in Africa and Asia and they weigh almost a tone!
- They eat leaves and most of them do not have teeth and eat with the help of their lips.

- Rhinos are sometimes killed by people for their horns. Their horns cost as much as gold per kilo.

This is the END