

Education is not a privilege;
Education is a right

EDUCATION IS NOT A PRIVILEGE, IT IS A RIGHT!

Introduction

The quote “Education is not a privilege; Education is a right” means that education is one of the most important rights. However, education is not available to everyone.

For example, literacy rates vary from country to country or region to region. We can better understand this fact by taking a look at the following world literacy map.

Quotes about education

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world”

-Nelson Mandela

The name and the objective of the organization

Education for All is going to be a non-governmental organization which will promote literacy and education for people from all walks of life and backgrounds. More specifically, this organization aims to reduce the rates of illiteracy in the developing world and eliminate the rates of illiteracy in the developed countries.

Target group

This organization will be set up to help children all around the world who do not have the finances to attend school. What's more, this organization will help adults who have been unable to get an education because of the poor economy of their country.

How is this organization going to find sponsors ?

In order to combat the phenomenon of illiteracy everyone should donate anything from money to supplies. For this reason, our organization will create special telephone lines and web pages which will give everyone the opportunity to offer their help.
